.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of Mandamus declaring the memo dated. 11/10/2004 of the 3rd Respondent Roc.No.D6/13053/DEO/2002 as being illegal, arbitrary and violative of Article. 14,16 and 21 of the Constitution of India and consequently set aside the same.

Counsel for the Petitioners: MR.Meherchand Noori

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.A.Ramalingeswara Rao S.C. for T.T.D.

The Court at the admission stage made the following :

ORDER:

The petitioners are contending that they applied for the contract lecturers/Medical Officers posts in pursuance of a notification dated 24.09.2004 for appointment in the third respondent institute. The petitioners were selected at serial Nos.8, 17, 6 and 16 respectively and that they contend that they joined on 08.10.2004, but the second respondent issued a memo on 11.10.2004 mentioning that the selection made for contract lecturers/Medical Officers on 06.10.2004 to the third respondent college stands cancelled due to administrative reasons as per the oral instructions of the Executive Officer of the first respondent-Devastanam. Though the petitioners contended that they joined on 08.10.2004, they did not place any material as to when they were communicated and when they were directed to report to duty and to whom they gave the joining report. In the absence of such material, the mere selection of the petitioners for the lecturers posts does not vest with them any right to agitate in a Court of law. The petitioners therefore cannot manage this petition.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
